He charges that Revision of the Laws. He charges that Judge Poland, in offering amendments to the act in the House, not only suffered himbar to the act in the House, not only suffered himbar self to be prompted by a Treasury officer to self to be prompted by a Treasury officer to tariff, under the pretence of simply giving explicit interpretation to existing gle word of truth in these charges and in sinuations. He not only ranks as one of House as the soul of honor and fairness. But apart from this, what possible motive could Judge Poland have in modifying laws against the interests of honest merchants? What benefit could accrue to him personally, or to a Treasury employee, from any logislation of this character? The thing is absurd. The charges are made to injure the Judge in his present canvass. We trust they will full of their purpose.

The Republicans of this see! He is sugar-that the s " the country should return to a gold basis as soon as possible." Kansas Republicanism the same day made a similar resolve, not as strong, however, as could be desired. The Maine Republicans stood firm in the hard-money ranks, and there is no doubt that the party in the other States, where elections are to be held, will be equally pronounced on the same subject. The De- ing from a source in sympathy with the mocracy, on the other hand, have, in lynchers, to attempt to excuse this wholemearly cvery convention held, either declared in favor of inflation or squinted at it. In one or two instances they have prochaimed repudiation, or what is antanuount to it. Indians opened the ball, and this week Ohio followed her leadership—"the Democracy" of Ohio reiterate their declaration that "the five-twenty bonds, by the letter and "spirit of the law and the general understanding of the community, were payable in legal tender notes, and the act of March, "1890, which pledged the faith of the name" of a great battle: 3 p. m. "Armed men are "pouring—in from the country to find all "lecters to of the tax-paying laborers for the "benefit of the non-taxpaying bondholders." Again, in one breath, they declared in favor of "a sound currency," and in the next that its volume should be regulated by the excessities of business—"that we are in favor of such an increase of the circulating "medium as the business interests of the "country may from time to time require."

In Illinois there seems to be some difference of opinion on the subject among the Democracy. There certainly was in the convention. At this writing we have not heard from the Pennsyl ranks and Masouri Democracy or the New Jersey Republicans, but there is little doubt that they will occupy substantially the same ground as their respective parties

So far as the civil rights bill is concerned, the Democracy is a unit against it everywhere; more especially in the South, where they seem to have regulisted the armies of the Confederacy to resist it. In many of the Republican conventions emphatic expression has been given in favor of its passage; in others it has been disposed of in a less positive way.

These two questions are really the only ones of a national character presented by the politicians.
